Visiting Puerto Rico after Hurricane Maria

by Cindy Flores and A'nya Booker

Why are you going to Puerto Rico?

She is going to help her people, deliver supplies for her family, friends, and colleagues that lost their things in hurricane Maria, and to continue working in the island to help. She will stay for seven days to help.

Do you think United States has helped Puerto Rico as much as it can?

No. She says Puerto Rico is a colony and a territory of the US but they aren't treated like first class citizens. Instead, they are treated like third class citizens. Puerto Ricans don't get treated the same as citizens who were born in the US.

How would you like to see Nicholas Orem help Puerto Rico?

Support the teachers because our hearts are broken from the devastation. We need support and love. She would like to start a donation box to give supplies to Puerto Rican family.

Teacher Spotlight

by Brandon Monroy

One interesting fact about Mr. Edgardo Malave is that he has three Master Degrees. Mr. Malave loves his family and he loves to cook. He likes to read and go to the movie theater but the most thing he loves is to pass time with his children. He teaches Spanish and in high school he had 4.0 every year until he finished. He was also in AVID.

6 below -Former professional hockey player Eric LeMarque finds himself stranded on a mountain during a fierce snowstorm. Coming to terms with his personal demons, he soon rediscovers the power of faith while fighting for survival. Coming out October 12th

Marshall - Young Thurgood Marshall faces one of his greatest challenges while working as a lawyer for the NAACP. Marshall travels to conservative Connecticut when wealthy socialite Eleanor Strubing accuses black chauffeur Joseph Spell of sexual assault and attempted murder. He soon teams up with Sam Friedman, a local Jewish lawyer who's never handled a criminal case. Together, the two men build a defense while contending with racist and anti-Semitic views from those who deem Spell to be guilty. Coming out October 13,17
