Programs for Children Birth through Three Years Old

Parents of children birth through three years old are invited to the Judy Center to learn about programs available for their young children. The Judy Center and/or its partner programs provide services that support early literacy development of young children including but not limited to the play groups, home visiting programs, adult literacy classes and early identification screenings.

For more information on the Judy Center programs and services, visit our Judy Center room #122 or room #123 or call 301-408-6860 or visit our web site at www1.pgcps.org/judycenter

The Judy Center Lending Library

The Judy Center has opened its Lending Library for Read-A-Loud Story Times. Please join us at 1:30 p.m. on December 13th for Story Time.

All parents, grandparents, guardians and child care families are encouraged to visit our library for Story Time.

We will be offering our Read-A-Loud Story Times on the second and fourth Monday of each month. Due to the Holiday break in December, only one session will take place this month.
