Programs for Children Birth through Three Years Old

Parents of children birth through three years old are invited to the Judy Center to learn about programs available for their young children. The Judy Center and/or its partner programs provide services that support early literacy development of young children including but not limited to the play groups, home visiting programs, adult literacy classes and early identification screenings.

For more information on the Judy Center programs and services, visit our Judy Center room #122 or room #123 or call 301-408-6860 or visit our web site at www1.pgcps.org/judycenter

Judy Center Offers SEFEL Parent Workshops

Our Judy Center will be offering a series of six parent workshops beginning in September. These workshops will be held for six Tuesdays beginning September 21st in Conference Room 107 of our Judy Center.

The purpose of these workshops is to provide parents development strategies for working with their children that demonstrate challenging behaviors.
