Virtual Learning and Behavioral Expectations
Virtual Learning Expectations

- Students must attend all classes as outlined on their schedule and sign in for each specified class via the provided zoom link.
- It is the expectation that students attend and actively participate in each class on a daily basis.
- It is the expectation for students to be signed in ON TIME. Attendance will be taken the first fifteen minutes of class.
Behavioral Expectations

- Respect one’s opinions.
- Raise hand to speak.
- Keep microphone muted unless you are recognized by the teacher.
- Do not share passwords with other students.
- Use appropriate language at all times.
Attendance

Chronic Absences:
When a student misses 10% of school days whether lawful or unlawful absences, including suspensions.

For every absence the parent must send a note via email to Ms. Minor at feleicia.minor@pgcps.org within 3 days after the students return to virtual learning.

A doctor’s note is required if a student is absent 6 days.

Attendance Matters
Every student. Every day.
Attendance (Distance Learning)

- Students are expected to be in class daily and present for each mod and live session.
- Your teacher will use a variety of ways to determine if you are present for each class such as:
  - Taking roll to see if you are online and present. They will enter the “present” or “absent” status into SchoolMax each mod (ALWAYS MAKE SURE YOUR TEACHER KNOWS THAT YOU ARE IN CLASS)
  - Use the Zoom report that shows your PGCPS login information.
  - Use the first assignment of the day as a student check-in. An assignment is set in the Google Classroom for a set period of time and you must login and check in within that period of time.
